

Resource Packet

Please dial 211 to locate additional resources not listed in this packet.

Unemployment Office:

Evansville Unemployment Office

700 East Walnut Street
Evansville, IN 47713
812-424-4473

Medicaid/Food Stamps: (SNAP, TANF, Medicaid, HHW, HIP)

Vanderburgh County Division of Family Resources

711 John Street, Suite C
Evansville, IN 47713-2754
1-800-403-0864

Evansville IN Medicaid – Food Stamp – Welfare Office administrates your local program under Indiana State guidelines. Medicaid provides health care for low income people. Welfare programs give assistance to those who have little or no income. While Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or Food Stamps helps low-income families buy food.

Assistance with Paying Bills: (rent/mortgage; heating bills; food; medications)

Aurora

812-428-3246
Rent assistance

Community Action Program of Evansville and Vanderburgh Co., Inc (CAPE)

812-425-4241
Housing aid; energy & heating bill aid; dental assistance; food & clothing; financial literacy; transitional housing

Community Partners

812-479-1856
They can assist with housing, furniture, food, clothing etc.

Evansville Catholic Charities Diocese

Financial assistance for bills, medications and housing

Evansville Police Department: Homeless Outreach Team

812-421-9194
Assist with housing and other basic needs

Township Trustees in Vanderburgh County

Heating bills; rent; food; utilities; medications

Outreach Ministries

812-464-1025
The goal of the organization is to prevent hunger, provide rent help to prevent homelessness and to help strengthen the family by providing emergency financial assistance (possibly grants) for low-income individuals who are facing a crisis or financial crisis, and to educate and advocate for social change for long term success.

The Salvation Army

812-425-1375
Runs an Emergency Family Shelter Program, which can offer support for the homeless and people facing eviction. There is also a Soup Kitchen and food pantry service as well as meal site. Other support from their Social Services includes Christmas gift donations, c

Basic Needs: (Food, Clothing, Diapers)

Adam's Pantry

Location is 314 South East Riverside Drive
Evansville IN, 47708
(812) 499-8422

Bethesda Ministries

1820 Strington
Evansville Indiana
812-424-2747

Catalyst Church

3232 W Claremont
Evansville Indiana
812-760-5950

The charity is part of Feeding America. Volunteers collect items from the community and provide free food to the needy. There may also be clothing collections held, referrals, and hot meals.

Central United Methodist Church

Primary location - 300 Mary Street
Evansville IN, 47710
(812) 424-3574

An emergency food pantry help. Vanderburgh County families living in poverty. Groceries, milk, dairy, and canned items, such as rice, may be provided.

Grace Baptist Church

1200 North Garvin Street
Evansville IN, 47711
Call (812) 428-0970 for hours.

The pantry limits how many people, seniors, and families are served every day.

Evansville Christian Life Center – Clothing Bank

509 South Kentucky Ave
Evansville IN, 47714
(812) 423-9222

The location helps families in the entire region. There is an emergency food pantry as well as clothing, and each item is 25 cents.

Evansville Rescue Mission

2420 Washington Ave
Evansville Indiana, 47714
(812) 476-2097

Counties served are Gibson, Perry, Posey, Spencer, Vanderburgh and Warrick County. The thrift store offers clothing, furniture, appliances, toys and other goods at less-than-retail prices and some families may qualify for free goods. If found to be qualified, a voucher is given to the family or child to shop for clothing at the local Warehouse. A thrift store and furniture bank are on site.

Forest Hills Baptist Church

The program is run from Helfrich Middle School
Evansville IN, 47712
Telephone number is (812) 422-6243

Good Shepherd Assembly of God

4330 N Burkhardt
Evansville, Indiana
812-473-4673

Not only is there a pantry, but senior citizens may request a home delivered meal.

Goodwill Industries

812-474-2220

A number of thrift stores and centers offer the general population with new and secondhand furniture, appliances, winter coats, clothing, toys, notebooks, and other material goods at less-than-retail prices. There may be lights, kitchen pots and pans, and other items.

Grace Baptist Church

1200 North Garvin Street
Evansville IN, 47711
(812) 425-2286 for hours.

Life in Abundance Church

2323 South Walnut Lane
Evansville Indiana, 47714
(812) 479-1970

Clothing, holiday meals, blankets, and more may be passed out by the church and its volunteers. The homeless may be supported too.

Lord's Church of Prayer

6944 Boyer Dr
Newburgh IN, 47629
Food bank number is (812) 842-0930

North Park Baptist Church

5015 First Avenue
Evansville IN
For hours, call 812-424-0717
Whether it is a meal, or maybe infant formula for a new, single mom, assistance is available.

Oak Hill Baptist Church

4615 Oak Hill Rd
Evansville Indiana, 47711
(812) 476-3450
A food pantry supplies a three to four day supply of groceries. Items provided may include fresh and frozen items.

Potter's Wheel

Location is 333 Jefferson Ave
Evansville IN, 47713
Telephone - (812) 401-4440

Saint John Catholic Church

625 Frame Rd
Newburgh Indiana, 47630-1604
(812) 490-4040
Serves people in Warrick, Gibson, Spencer, and Vanderburgh Counties.

Saint Mary Catholic Church

613 Cherry Street
Evansville Indiana, 47713
(812) 425-1577
Serves groceries as a last resort to those that need help. There are also free holiday meals, including at Christmas, Easter, and Thanksgiving.

Saint Matthew's United Church of Christ

3007 First Ave
Evansville IN, 47710
(812) 422-8023

Saint Paul Lutheran Church

100 East Michigan

Evansville IN, 47711

(812) 422-5414

Free food is combined with personal hygiene items. There is also a soup kitchen that not only feeds the homeless but may serve Christmas meals.

Saint Vincent DePaul Society

767 East Walnut
Evansville IN, 47713
(812) 425-3148

A number of social services, including a thrift store and clothing closet, are offered. Resources are available in Daviess, Gibson, Knox, Perry, Posey, Vanderburgh and Warrick Counties. All resources provided are limited and vary. The charity clothing center may have, based on donations, housewares, free clothing, coats, and more is offered. Additional assistance programs offer secondhand and new furniture, appliances, toys, clothing and other material goods at affordable prices.

Salem's Sharing Basket

11325 E Old Lower Mt Vernon Rd
Evansville IN
812-985-2542

A food pantry and soup kitchen are on site. Fruits, soup, and more is provided to low income families in Vanderburgh County.

Salvation Army

1931 South Weinbach, Evansville Indiana,
47708-1017
(812) 473-3886

There are many in all counties and towns. They offer free stuff, including annual back to school supplies as well as birthday or Christmas toys or winter coats for kids. There is food, emergency financial aid, case management, thrift store and more. Many also offer some basic household furniture, such as a couch, table, or kitchen goods. The non-profit organization offers seniors and the low income with new and secondhand furniture, appliances, free loathing, holiday toys and other material goods.

Simpson United Methodist Church

2201 West Illinois St.

Evansville IN, 47712

(812) 423-7636

Assistance programs in southwest Indiana include a free food pantry, soup kitchen, and clothing closet.

The Coat A Kid Program

(812) 422-4673

Provides free winter attire, coats, hats, and more to children and students.

The River at Evansville

1138 East Blackford

Evansville IN, 47714

(812) 422-8102

Residents across Vanderburgh County can turn to this food bank. Groceries and more is offered.

YWCA

118 Vine St

Evansville IN, 47708

(812) 422-1191

Clients and applicants need a referral from the Rescue Mission, Catholic Charities, Outreach Ministries, or Community Action Program of Evansville. The pantry will pass out groceries and more. Senior citizens and the disabled may also receive hot meals too. Children can also receive snacks as part of the Summer Food Service Program, or parents can apply for free school lunches from the USDA.

Zion Missionary Baptist Church

1800 South Governor

Evansville Indiana, 47713

(812) 423-1963

Fresh fruits, canned goods, vegetables, and more may be offered. Students and children can receive assistance as well.

Free/Low Cost Health Care:*Evansville Christian Health Clinic

265 Bellemeade Avenue

Evansville, IN 47713

812-426-6152

Dental services, medical services and pregnancy/STD services

ECHO Community Healthcare, Inc.

812-436-0214

Vanderburgh County Division of Family Resources

711 John Street, Suite C

Evansville, IN 47713-2754

1-800-403-0864

Evansville IN Medicaid – Food Stamp – Welfare Office administrates your local program under Indiana State guidelines. Medicaid provides health care for low income people. Welfare program give assistance to those who have little or no income. While Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or Food Stamps helps low-income families buy food.

Women Infant & Children (WIC)

420 Mulberry Street, 1st Floor

Evansville, IN 47713

812-435-5701

WIC participants receive benefits, which can be redeemed for specified nutritious foods at designated grocery stores. WIC participants also receive nutrition education, nutrition counseling, and referrals to other health and social services. ALL persons who receive Medicaid/Hoosier Healthwise, Food Stamps, and TANF are income-eligible for WIC.

Mental Health Services:

For crisis help, please go to your nearest Emergency Room.

Deaconess Cross Pointe

7200 E. Indiana St.
Evansville, IN
(812) 476-7200

Deaconess Cross Pointe is a full-services psychiatric and chemical dependency hospital that helps families and individuals of all ages – from all walks of life. Inpatient services, outpatient services, individual, family, and group therapy.

Ireland Home Based Services

3231 N Green River Rd
Suite 220, Evansville, IN 47715
(812) 479-1856

Services Offered: Their clinical staff consists of psychologists and therapists with a broad range of training and expertise. In addition to traditional psychological therapies, we provide multiple formal assessments as well as services designed to assist businesses with employee selection and health. Specific credentials are held in Forensic Testing, Substance Abuse Treatment, and Autism Disorders.

Lampion Center

655 S Hebron Ave,
Evansville, IN 47714
(812) 471-1776

Website: <http://www.lampioncenter.com/>

Services Offered:

Since 1885 the Lampion Center has been a beacon in our community, serving those who need assistance through life transitions and traumas. Our affordable counseling services help children, adults, and families who are experiencing:

Trauma, Life Stress, Grief/Loss, Anxiety/Depression, Abuse/Violence, Child Behavior Issues, and Relationship Issues

Midwest Behavioral Health

7300 E Indiana St Suite
103, Evansville, IN 47715
(812) 401-8008

Appointments:

midwestbehavioralhealth.com

Services Offered:

Their team treats a broad range of emotional, behavioral and mental health issues including, but not limited to, the following: Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADD-ADHD, Anger Management, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Anxiety Disorders, Grief, Bipolar Disorder, Depression, Adjustment Disorder, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Panic Attacks, and Stress Management.

Southwestern Behavioral Health Center

(812) 423-7791

24-hour emergency evaluations, assessments, groups, crisis interventions, counseling for people of all ages with mental health and/or substance abuse problems. Medicaid provider.